Dear Ms. Sifuentes:

I am sorry we have not gotten to you sooner with the necessary material for your review, comments and approval. We are very excited about the KING KONG products that we have been working on, and I am sure you will be very pleased with the results.

We are planning for three different KING KONG game products. The first is our Model 7-721 - KING KONG LCD Game/Clock. The second is Model 7-701 - KING KONG Table Top Game, and the third is Model 7-001 - TV Game Cartridge. Each of the three game varieties follow the same central theme of the game story line from the KING KONG movie, whereby you control the hero and try to outmaneuver KING KONG and rescue the lady from the top of the Empire State Building.

Per your request I have included the following material for your review, comments and approval:

1. 1982 Tiger Catalog
2. Model 7-721 KING KONG LCD Game
   A. Gift Box Sample
3. Model 7-701 KING KONG Table Top Game
   A. Very preliminary gift box sample
   B. Pencil sketch of artwork for outside of game cabinet
4. Model 7-001 TV Game Cartridge
   A. Rough pencil sketch of gift box artwork
   B. Photos Game Screen

Please call me at your earliest convenience if you have any questions or comments. We are going to have a smashing success with these KING KONG products.

Best regards,

Randy O. Rissman
President
